

Publications Research Group

WLSA

This Research Group will be developing a strategy for WLSA publications for the next 5 years, focusing initially on the WLSA Record and the WLSA website news blog. It also has a very practical role, effectively operating as an Editorial Advisory Board for the WLSA Record.

We are looking for enthusiastic and willing teachers, middle leaders and senior leaders who:

- can dedicate some time to working collaboratively with others
- can think creatively about new content and ideas for the WLSA publications
- are doers!

The expectations of members of the Publications Research Group are:

- to contribute to strategic and practical planning for future issues of the WLSA Record, including generating ideas for themes, authors and different types of articles
- to write or source a minimum of two website blogs per year for the WLSA website
  - to write a minimum of 1 article per year for the WLSA Record if required, on a topic to be agreed
  - to source a minimum of 2 articles per year for the WLSA Record, on topics to be agreed
- to attend minimum 2 virtual Research Group meetings per year
  - to review and edit if necessary articles sent to the Group
  - to attend the WLSA annual conference as a presenter or guest, schedule permitting
    - anything else as required!

Benefits for you:

- developing editorial and publications experience
- networking and connecting with interesting people
- being part of something big and meaningful – this is an amazing opportunity to support and contribute to the vision and mission of WLSA in supporting its members and reaching out to new members as the organisation grows.
- Conference fee waived at the annual WLSA summer conference
